Williamson County Chamber names 2006 officers

Published: Monday, 01/30/06

The Williamson County-Franklin Chamber of Commerce has elected new officers and is pleased to announce the following local business leaders who will serve during 2006.

Chairman Greg Davis, Crosslin Supply Company; Executive Vice Chairman, Ron Shuff, Shuff's Music Sales and Studio; President/CEO Nancy Conway; treasurer, Rufus Bagsby, Regions Bank; immediate past chairman, Jim Moody, Moody's Tire and Auto Service.

The Chamber also welcomes eight newly-elected members to the Board of Directors who will serve three-year terms. They are: Harrison Crabtree, Peoples State Bank of Commerce; Eddie Goodwin, APCOM, Inc.; Debbie Henry, TMA Group/Franklin Transit Authority; Cathy Holland, Metro Nashville Airport Authority; Doug Hood, Williamson County Parks and Recreation; Ermon Lature, Habitat for Humanity of Williamson County; Ella Sauter, Individual Member, and Sandee Tishler, Vanderbilt Medical Group.

The Williamson County-Franklin Chamber of Commerce will host their monthly membership luncheon on Wednesday, Feb. 22 at 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m.

The event will be held at Franklin Marriott and Cool Springs Conference Center, 700 Cool Springs Blvd. East, in Franklin.

The cost is $23 per guest or $18.00 per member. Reservation are required, so call the Chamber Office at 615-794-1225

In addition to a seated lunch and great opportunities for networking, each meeting offers speakers on timely topics and reports from Chamber Divisions as appropriate. Mayor Tom Miller will give the "State of the City Address."

They now accept pre-payment with your luncheon reservation: American Express, MasterCard and Visa.
