

This is a printer friendly version of an article from the The Tennessean. To print this article open the file menu and choose Print

< < Back

---

Dateline Williamson for Feb. 13, 2006

Published: Monday, 02/13/06

WILLIAMSON COUNTY

Applicants, property needed for Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity of Williamson County is taking applications, year-round, for those who are interested in becoming homeowners and who think they may qualify for a Habitat house. According to Ermon Lature, director of Habitat for Humanity of Williamson County, there is an immediate, critical need for affordable, build-able property.

There also is a need for property for the houses. Habitat hopes to build 10 houses in 2006.

"We have strong commitments for sponsors for eight to 10 houses in 2006 but our current inventory of lots is only six at this moment," Lature said.

If interested in becoming a homeowner, call Mary Rucker at 591-7077 or in Fairview call Debbie Rainey at 799-0424. If you know of property for sale in Williamson County, call the Habitat office at 591-7077.

SPRING HILL

The Well opens to the community

Wellspring Christian Church opens The Well, which will serve as a food pantry to provide emergency assistance to people in the community.

The Well opens tomorrow and is located in Wellspring's office at 1001 Chapman's Crossing. It will be open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. No appointment is necessary and all client information will be kept confidential. Help will be available for those who speak Spanish.

FRANKLIN

Hospital offers family-oriented classes

Williamson Medical Center will offer two family-oriented classes Saturday.

One class is the Brothers and Sisters To Be class for children ages 3 to 10 who are expecting a new baby in the family. It will be held from 9 to 10:30 a.m. and costs $10. A tour of the facility and refreshments are included.

The other class is a breast-feeding class for expectant couples. It will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. and will cost $20. There is a $5 discount if it is taken with the childbirth education series.

For more information on either class, call WMC's Education and Development Department at 435-5116.

BRENTWOOD

Students get a look at fossils

Owl's Hill Nature Sanctuary, 545 Beech Creek Road, holds a special fossil study day for home-school students beginning at 10 a.m. Friday. Students will study the fossil collection at Owl's Hill and then hike the trails to see what they can find.

Students should be in fourth grade or higher. Cost is $6 per person and pre-paid reservations are required. To make a reservation, call 370-4672 or go online at www.owlshill.org.

Published: Monday, 02/13/06

---